

Unmissable SEND Conference

LEADING ON SEND ACROSS ALL SCHOOLS CONFERENCE
2-3 APRIL 2019 | LONDON

Day 1: National Autism Day Autism in Girls - Many Voices

This highly anticipated conference for senior leaders will focus on girls with autism. You'll gain insight and perspective from girls on the autism spectrum, which often goes undetected, and learn effective practices emerging in the field. Be the first to read the Girls and Autism book, edited by Barry Carpenter, Francesca Happé and Jo Egerton, which will be launched on the first day of the conference.

Day 2: Diversity, difference and dynamics

Day 2 will focus on the varied challenges and experiences for both young people with SEND and the adults working with them. Through a range of workshops and keynote sessions we will explore the solutions which can be found through deepening partnerships and understanding.

Spaces are limited, book your space now!

nahtorg.uk/SEND2019

 01444 472405

 @NAHTnews