The Bereavement Book

Activities to Support Children &
Young People through Grief & Loss

Tina Rae

“How do teachers support and unravel bereavement in children? This is a big ask, but as ever help is at hand in this latest outstanding resource from Dr Tina Rae. This is an exceptional resource book, that will enable teachers to implement responsive teaching, and walk with the child through their journey of grief.”

Professor Barry Carpenter CBE, OBE, D.Litt., Professor of Mental Health in Education, Oxford Brookes University

In this accessible and informative handbook, Tina Rae sensitively guides teachers, support staff, SENCOs and others working with children on the best ways to support children and young people coping with grief and loss following the death of a loved one.

Advice and strategies are provided on a whole host of difficult issues, including support children:

- of different ages
- with complicated grief
- when planning a funeral
- make sense of the grieving process
- work through the process of remembering
- return to school following a bereavement.

Eighty worksheets provide a range of activities to help bereaved children attempt to understand, express and process their grief and allow them to remember and celebrate their special person. These can also be used to develop a personal bereavement box and construct a memory book.

All resources can be used flexibly, and they are best suited to supporting individuals or working in small groups. Includes information sheets, letter templates, resource suggestions and a directory of useful websites and further reading.
